

PUBLIC LEDGER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

GEOFFREY MALCOLM, ex-chief of Fire Department, died at Portsmouth.

THESE were raised in Kentucky in 1893 183,038,432 pounds of tobacco.

THE number of sheep in Mason county in 1893 was 11,774, valued at $29,000.

THE amount of cash on hand assessed in Mason county in 1893 was $225,015.

PAUL JONES the baseballist was run over and badly hurt by a fire engine in Danville.

THE assessed value of household and kitchen furniture in Mason county in 1893 was $201,500.

THE total equalized value of real and personal property in Kentucky in 1893 was $532,784,528.

ELIJAH D. STOCKTON, a prominent resident of Paducah, died on a railway train near Rochester, N. Y.

THE number of sheep in Mason county last year—not including the two-legged ones—was 4,286, assessed at $17,367.

THE assessed value of diamonds in Mason county in 1893 was $960, of jewelry $250 and of steam engines $6,000.

THE assessed value of real and personal property in Mason county for 1892, $10,171,581; amount of state taxes $45,315.06.

THE Second, Fourth, Merchants' and Kentucky National Banks of Louisville are to be consolidated into one institution to be known as the American National.

AS a toilet luxury, Ayer's Hair Vigor cannot be equaled. It is highly perfumed and keeps the scalp clean and cool.

SAM STAIRS is writing a story for his semi-weekly Reporter. At the close of the second chapter he lands a fellow in jail.

THE steamboat fare from Painteville to Cynthiana is now 50 cents. It used to be $5, and it was easier to get the $5 than it is to get the 50 cents now. Oh, but these are "good times!"

MRS. NANCY HALL, the granddaughter of Edna Hall, who was the victim of Philip Evans, who was hanged in Bardstown on February 3d for criminal assault, was found frozen to death near the home of her son.

WILLIAM FRENCH, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Court of Appeals at Frankfort, celebrated his 50th anniversary of his wedlock. Mr. French has been connected with the Appellate tribunal for about forty years.

LOUISA now has two saloons in full bloom. The town lately tested the wiles of the citizens in the liquor question and the result was an almost unanimous decision to let the saloon stand.

LAST week while James Metzler was chopping down a tree on the farm of Mike Shinkle opposite Augusta a limb fell from the top, striking him on the arm, breaking it in two places. He was also otherwise seriously injured.

AND NOW Mrs. Dr. Berry of Quincy has fallen to a big slice of $7,000,000 left by an uncle. She has employed attorney Noel Johnson of Vancburg to get it for her, but all they will probably ever see of it is contained in this announcement:

JACOB SMITH, said to be the oldest man in the United States and a Methodist for seventy seven years, died in Garrard county, aged 99. He was never sick in his life until a few months ago, and conducted the dry goods business until he was 96 years old.

WHEN a young lady is carrying a bucket of water and a young man meets her on the sidewalk and talks with her for thirty-three minutes, wouldn't it be "good etiquette" for him to burst the Augusta Reporter?

Well, now, Sam, that depends. If the young man were as well equipped as the young lady for the "nursing" business, it might be all right.

JOHN D. FRANKE, a prominent farmer of Fleming county, and Miss Mary E. Mullens, a popular young lady of Maysville, were married at the bride's mother's at Georgetown, O., February 20th, and left Wednesday morning for Maysville. After taking dinner with the bride's sister, Mrs. Paul Crane, they left on the 8 o'clock train for their future home in Covington, with the best wishes of our neighbors—well, we might ask the Scioto Edging to take stain.

MISS DAIRY BLACKBURN, daughter of Captain James Blackburn, United States Marshal for the District of Kentucky, died at the home of her parents near Spring Station, Woodford county, after a week's illness of cerebral disease, aged about 26 years.

KATE MARSHALL of Morristown has drawn a pension.

DIVORCE AND ALIMONY.

Both sued for by Mrs. Lucy May McLean at Lexington.

The filing in the Fayette County Circuit Court of a suit for divorce by Mrs. Lucy May McCann against her husband, James P. McCann, has created considerable excitement.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann were married in 1891 in Chicago, and are both members of prominent and wealthy Bluegrass families.

The gossips circulated the report some months ago that all was not going well with the young couple, who occupied a certain residence two miles from the city. A certain other married lady was said to be the cause.

Mrs. McCann is a daughter of Colonel Robert Johnson, the widely known turfman and breeder of Davy Monroe and other good race horses, while Mr. McCann owns the thoroughbred stallion Spokane and a large number of noted brood mares. They move in the best society, and the action taken by the wife throws new light on the troubles which were known to exist to some extent for some time.

In her petition the plaintiff states that the defendant owns about $90,000 worth of property. She asks that the court release her from the bond of matrimony and allow her proper alimony for her support, returning her to her maiden name, Lucy Mary Johnson.

The woman in the case is not known, but trouble had existed for some time on account of the attention paid to her, the petitioner omitting the name.

JOSEPH V. DORN of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Palm Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wished to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cold Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cold had left me, and I have not suffered with a cold or sore since. I have recommended it to many, and all speak well of it. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist."

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1892.—To the Friends and Gentlemen: It gives me exceeding pleasure to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it the best I have ever used. My old servant Albert, who is 70 years old, was in bad health, and I could not get him to take medicine. I called in a family physician and gave him every attention, but he could not cure him. I had no hope, and the only thing that could be done was to let him die.

At this point I decided to give him Chamberlain's Antiseptic, as it seemed to be performing well. I gave him a dose every three hours, and regular doses every three hours, and the fever seemed to go away. The next day he was better, and the next day he was still up and about. In three days he was sitting up and eating solid food. The improvement was noticed the first day. The best remedy would be for him to decline to receive any longer the unlawfully appropriated money.

JOHN W. McGARVEY,

NUMBERS of acres of land in Mason county assessed in 1893, 140,000; valuation of same, $5,500,240; number of city or town lots, 2,610; valuation of same, $2,000,000.

Night Fire.
Friday afternoon the house occupied by and belonging to Mrs. A. J. Williams on Lime Street was damaged by fire to a small extent. The house next door was being repaired and repapered, and the painters threw the paper in the grate, which set fire to the chimney, and the sparks flew over on the adjoining roof, which caught fire, and but for the prompt assistance of several passers-by there would have been severe loss. The insurance company had the damage repaired Saturday morning.

New Get Away.
The special Grand Jury summoned at Lexington to take action regarding the late trouble between Editor Baxter and Mayor Duncan Saturday afternoon returned indictments against everybody who was connected with the differences. One or more true bills were found against Mayor H. T. Duncan, his son Harry Duncan; Messrs. Baxter, Boyle and Furman owners of The Lexington Transcript; County Attorney John R. Allen, San J. Roberts, Editor of The Leader, and D. Elliott Kelly, Lexington correspondent of a Cincinnati newspaper.

HERE ARE SOME MORE "HOWLS." Brother MARSH:

LOWELL, MASS.—The Middlesex Woolen Mills shut down indefinitely today.

SALINEVILLE, O.—The miners of this district have decided to resist the proposed 20 per cent reduction in wages and to hold out for the old scale.

CINCINNATI, O.—Five hundred coal miners employed at the Rosedale and Homestead mines held a mass meeting and agreed to accept a reduction of twenty-five and a half cents per ton.

MANCHESTER, N. H.—The Stark Mills which last week reduced the hours to forty per week, now announce that several hundred employees will be discharged at the end of this week; light demand for goods is said to be the cause.

THE Editor of The Bulletin has seen all, by himself, to say that the Hon. GALENA A. GROW, just elected to Congress from Pennsylvania, was an advocate of free coin.

Well, here are the platforms upon which each candidate stood:

Republican Platform, Democratic Platform

The Republicans of Pennsylvania and of our great commonwealth as well as the world were upon the field.

Every consideration of political wisdom, fidelity and expedient led the delegates upon whom the choice of 1862 was won, that he fully kept, and that the Democratic Convention shall remain prompt in passing the Wilcox Bill. We call upon our representatives in Congress to act and vote as to promptly pass the same in accordance with Democratic promises and Democratic professions.

Upon these declarations the issue was joined and fought to the conclusion recorded in the dispatches announcing the greatest plurality for the Republican party ever given for any party or candidate in a Pennsylvania election.

Plurality is the answer of the North to the proclamation of war by the South upon Northern industries, Northern prosperity, Northern civilization and progress.

It is the answer of Pennsylvania to Arkansas and Florida and Mississippi.

It is the answer from forge and factory, from mine and farm, to the message of fanaticism and ruin from bayonets and everglades.

It is the thunder of another Gettysburg marking the recoil of the Free-trade charge against the citadel of Northern industry. As Pennsylvania has spoken so will the Union speak in November.

UNDESIRABLE IMMIGRANTS.

New York Tribune.—Nearly every country in Europe is represented in the hordes of 11,300 immigrants who, according to the statistics just issued by the Commissioner of Immigration, were landed at the Island during the month of December. This includes a list which was closed by Turkey. About one-half of the entries are stated to have been persons of no profession or occupation, while nearly 3,000 are returned as unable either to read or write—scarcely desirable candidates for American citizenship at a moment when the labor market is so over-crowded and the number so large of native born un-employed dependent upon public and private charity.

COMMENDABLE EXAMPLE.

New York Press.—The scrupulous judge which a Williamsburg Justice administered on Tuesday to a hardened creditor who insisted that a poor sewing girl should give up her sewing machine, her sole means of support, because she was short $2 on the final installment of the purchase price, was richly deserved. The man who would take harsh advantage of the distress of an impoverished woman in such times as the present belongs outside the pale of ordinary consideration. The action of the remorseless creditor in this instance was the more contemptible from the fact that he appears to have known that the mother of the young woman was sick, that her father was out of work and that she had gone without food and had absolutely begged money to satisfy his demands. The indignant Justice rightly declared that his court should not be used "to drive people to the poor house." His example is worthy of emulation.

CINCINNATI, O.—Five hundred coal miners employed at the Rosedale and Homestead mines held a mass meeting and agreed to accept a reduction of twenty-five and a half cents per ton.

MANCHESTER, N. H.—The Stark Mills which last week reduced the hours to forty per week, now announce that several hundred employees will be discharged at the end of this week; light demand for goods is said to be the cause.

SOVEREIGN,

General Master of the Knights of Labor Raves,

Bitterly Denouncing the Decision of Judge Jenkins in the Railroad Case.

Decides That He Will Violate the Northern Pacific Injunction—Laboring Men Considered as "Slaves."

FIVE MONTHS, Ia., Feb. 26.—General Master Workmen Sovereign, of the Knights of Labor, addressed a meeting of the railway employees here Saturday afternoon and took occasion to denounce Judge Jenkins in scathing terms at the same time announcing his intention to violate the Northern Pacific injunction. Among other things, Mr. Sovereign said:

"This is the first time that the flag of treason has floated over the United States treasury. For the first time in the history of the country, a general injunction has been issued out to get an swift man confirmed as judge of the supreme court. For the first time in the history of the country laboring men have been ordered by the courts to keep their mouths shut under penalty of being put in jail."

"I do not want to get into trouble with the courts, for the penalty is $5,000 fine and imprisonment in the penitentiary for six months. Judge Jenkins, if it is a disgrace, I have been enjoined from speaking. I am not afraid about their trouble. I will go to Winona this evening to Minneapolis Monday, and Wednesday I will address a meeting of Northern Pacific employees at St. Paul. Just as sure as there is a God in Heaven, I will violate the injunction. Who is Judge Jenkins anyway? He is a man who has no soul whose soul was intended for hades and whose posterior was made for kicks."

These sentiments were received with immense applause.

In an interview Sunday afternoon General Master Workman Sovereign corroborated his statement that the Knights will violate the subject of de-gressing Negroes to Africa. He believes the scheme to be feasible, and declares it to be the only solution of the race problem in the south.

SMALLPOX.

A Case Develops in the General Hospital at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 26.—The board of health Sunday ordered a quarantine established for at least ten days at the West Penn Yan-Yana hospital in the city.

Julia Richardson, colored, was suddenly morning attacked with a malignant form of smallpox. She had been admitted a day or two ago, supposed to be afflicted with influenza, but was removed to the post hospital, bedded down and the ward physician. There are 102 patients, 118 nurses and several physicians in the hospital. A detail of police are on guard about the hospital.

Gold in Texas.

FREDERICKSBURG, Tex., Feb. 26.—Dr. Christopher Allman, a practical mineralogist, has found gold on his ranch in the eastern part of the state. (Gillespie), a lot of gold-bearing specimens more than two feet thick and one foot broad. The vein has been traced for half a mile on the surface, and prospect diggings show more layers below. An assay of the ore shows that it runs $900 worth of gold and $400 worth of silver to the ton.

Woman Fatally Pierced.

CORNING, Ia., Feb. 26.—Mabel Joy, living with her husband and four children at 413 West Fourth street, was fatally burned Saturday evening. Mrs. Joy, while at the stove attending to her Saturday's baking, brushed her apron across the fire. A moment later, a blaze, and the fire rapidly enveloped her entire clothing, burning her body in a horrible manner.

Business Houses Burned.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 26.—McDonald, Pa., an oil town eight miles south of here, was visited at 5 o'clock Saturday morning by a fire which destroyed thirteen business structures in the center of the town. The fire started in the post office, and was fed by a heavy pressure of natural gas. The loss was $50,000, partially covered by insurance.

Sabotrists in Trieste.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The health and police committee of supervisors have decided to give the hall of records of the city hall to the salvation army for their house here. The city will probably furnish water and heat. The salvation army intends to give lodgings and food to the destitute who are now taken care of by the police.

French Seafarers Stricken.

PARIS, Feb. 26.—De Pelegny, a republican, was elected senator for the department of Hautes Pyrenees, France, at the last vacant seat in the Senate of Albert. De Pelegny, a son of M. Mir, republican, was elected to the Senate for the department of the Aude.

Fire Insurance Agent Under Arrest.

WASOON, Minn., Feb. 26.—Josiah L. Claghorn, a leading citizen of this place, in $15,000 short in his accounts and was held for examination. A warrant was sworn out by the Hartford Fire Insurance Co., of which he was agent.

Get Ten Years for Murder.

GAINESVILLE, Ind., Feb. 26.—William Reed was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary. Reed killed Polson Marman at Indianapolis last October with a stone.

Woman Dies in Death.

HARRISON, Ct., Feb. 26.—William H. Brodick, who was business manager of the Hartford Courant until December, 1881, fell dead Sunday evening while entering a drug store.

Insurgent Santa Anna.

BENITO ARANA, Feb. 26.—The insurgents Rio Grande de Sul have entered the city of Santa Anna.

SNOW IN THE SOUTH.

Early Vegetables and Fresh Crops Killed and Great Damage Done to Trees of All Kinds.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn., Feb. 26.—Another great snow storm hit the southern states Saturday night, and Sunday night the ground is covered with snow from one foot to fourteen inches on a level. Such a thing as a snow plow is unknown in this latitude, and as a consequence traffic on many of the railroads is almost entirely suspended. The snow storm was preceded by sleet, which caused the wires to break, cut, and snap, and reports of damage to the early vegetable and fruit crops in the outlying districts are coming in slowly, but every dispatch brings news of disaster to the farmers and fruit growers. The peach crop will prove a total loss, out of the 100,000 trees now beginning to bloom, but the apple trees stand the blizzard remarkably well. Figs, dates and pears were killed outright.

CANTON, Miss., Feb. 26.—The first snow of the season fell Saturday night, and began to accumulate about 6 o'clock in the morning, and continued for about three hours. The snow, added to the sleet of the day before, has made this the worst spell of weather experienced here since 1867. The destruction of trees is terrible. In many yards the broken and fallen trees are the marks of a cyclone. It is colder with every indication of more snow.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Feb. 26.—The ground was covered with eight inches at 10 o'clock Sunday night. Much apprehension is felt regarding it going off with a rain.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 26.—There are about five inches of snow here. North-ern trains are delayed.

BIG BAPTIZING.

One Hundred and Six Negroes Immersed in Ice Had Been Cut in Leggards Creek.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 26.—A spectacle never before witnessed in this section of the state was the baptism of 106 converts Monday morning in the freezing waters of Lagonda creek. For the past two months a great revival has been going on at the Second Baptist church, an organization of the colored people in the city.

At the time set for the baptism, 10 o'clock, the banks of the creek were packed with people, white and colored. The engagements of many of the fashion-able society of the city were present, and spectators by their presence. The services were delayed an hour and a half the ice along the bank having to be cut. The choir kept singing all the time, stopping just as the minister immersed the candidates and then beginning again the ceremony of baptism.

It is a difficult but important question, not only to Mexico, but to all the silver countries of the world. It is impossible for Mexico to demonetize silver because that would bring universal ruin to us, and rather than accept such an extreme measure we would make up our minds to let it go.

Fortunately, we can produce enough agricultural articles of all the zones to supply our wants, and although our manufactures are yet crude, they would receive great impulse by the high price of exchange.

On the debate, but the other nations would be materially affected by the further fall of silver, because if the former are deprived of the means of paying their debts the creditors would be the final sufferers. The commercial nations of Europe are more particularly concerned in the question because the high price of silver is the chief difference between the price of silver and gold constitutes such a great bounty to exports of the commodities of silver countries which are produced at silver prices and sold on the great markets at gold prices.

It is also the chief object of foreign manufacturers that it creates a very great incentive to develop home industries, so that while increasing the exports of silver countries to gold markets the depreciation of silver seriously cripples the exports of Europe into the silver countries.

Mr. Honnor's views on this matter are shared by the diplomatic representatives of other Latin-American countries. It is pointed out as a hopeful sign that the German government already has a commission considering the same question, and the secretary of the imperial treasury presides. Among the questions presented to that commission were those of keeping stable the price of silver and the best basis for an agreement of nations on the subject.

The change in the attitude of Europe, if it is supported, may lead to the discovery that the Latin-American nations are considering the effect of concerted efforts on their part for the purpose of defending silver. It has been pointed out that these countries have a large amount of silver in their reserves, and that they may determine upon radical measures to resist a further increase in the rate of interest which would be caused by a fall in silver.

Murder and Incendiarism.

BARKERSFIELD, Calif., Feb. 26.—Two ranchers, Simpson and Pierce, killed A. P. Hood on his ranch, eighteen miles from Bakersfield, Calif. Hood refused to pay his debts to the ranchers.

They also injured one of Hood's young sons. A party left for Kern City, where the two prisoners are in jail, intent upon taking the men and lynching them.

Earthquake in Nebraska.

ACADIA, Feb. 26.—An earthquake shock was felt here Sunday morning, lasting over one minute. Its direction was north-south, and jarred the houses like heavy thunder. At sunset Saturday night there was an unusually bright display of aurora, the whole northern heavens being ablaze with deep purple fire.

Indiana Miners to Meet.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 26.—A delegate from each of the mining districts will be held in this city Wednesday to consider the circular issued by operators asking miners to accept a reduction in wages. The state executive board of the miners advocates a reduction.

Louisville Tragedy.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 26.—Jacob Nave, a west end tough, was shot and mortally wounded by John Leroy, in his son's room at Griffin's hotel Saturday morning. He died at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Ajord Lang was also shot by Leroy, but only slightly injured. Lemont Brown arrested.

Fuchs Bush Injured.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 26.—Advices from the post office state that the cold weather has injured the bush to a great extent. State advised that the Grand Rapids county boards have not been seriously injured thus far.

MEXICO.

Sigñor Romero Discusses the Silver Question.

The Latin-American States Must Have Relief.

All Exports and Imports Must Cease Impossible for Mexico to Demonstrate Silver Because That Would Bring Ruin to the Country.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Important and interesting information as to the present aspect of the international monetary question is derived from Sigñor Romero, the Mexican ambassador to the United States. In response to inquiries from a representative of the United Press regarding his opinion of the published statements that England and France were about to adopt a determined fight against the silver standard, he said:

"The secretary of the treasury of the Mexican government informed me by a personal letter, dated January 18, 1894, that according to private advice the German government was leaning toward the adoption of the silver standard, and that private members of the cabinet, and that it was almost sure that the international conference would come again with better chances of favorable results."

"As long as the United States or any of the commercial nations of Europe are not prepared to adopt the silver standard, it is difficult that they will have to take the same course. We must wait and come to some conclusion as far as they are able to do so, with a view to prevent further decline in the price of silver and to awaken the interest of the financial world on the subject."

"It is likely that some of the nations will be inclined to accept the proposal using silver as money, among which all the Latin-American states will be included, as well as the eastern nations, in order to study the question and come to an agreement with a view to attaining the result."

"The silver question is a difficult one, but the next step is the control of the next house, he says, will be made with the tariff as the issue. "There is no question but that the United States will be the first to act, and will probably be the first to win." The silver standard is in favor of the republicans, and we are preparing to make the most of the favoring conditions."

"It is to be a campaign of education," Mr. Caldwell was asked.

That the people are enlightened and interested in the tariff question, and we propose giving it to them. We are now receiving all the good speeches made by our party leaders in the house on the Wilson tariff bill. We shall make a similar collection of the tariff speech made by our leaders in the senate, and then shall send them broadcast in every district where they will do the most good."

NEAL DOW'S NINETIETH.

Col. Swope's Relatives Visit Davyville, W. Va.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Letters are being received almost daily from Miss Anna

Swopes, who is still an invalid at Lady Henry Somerset's cottage at Regent's Park, giving suggestions to the various branches of the Women's Christian Temperance union concerning their proposed national observance in March next of the ninetieth birthday of Gen. Neal Dow.

Advices received at the headquarters in this city state that every state and territory in the union has been heard from, and that the celebration will be held throughout Great Britain and Ireland.

The Swopes and Dr. Lewis have both retained lawyers, and there are probabilities of coming trouble.

The Swopes say that the statement made to the effect that Dr. Lewis saw a ghost in his room in the fall of 1888 is unfriendly to him, who was then in Europe, and that they will be able to prove that Miss Swope was not acquainted with Miss Dow at all.

Dr. Lewis, although an old man is dead game." The Swopes are anxious to have the coroner's inquest of their brother, and will have no stone unturned in their investigation.

Fredrickson Dies March 23.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Judge Brenton Stanton overruled the motion for a new trial for Prudger and sentenced the assassin to be hanged on March 23.

On the same day, Thomas J. Higgins, alias Higgins, will also suffer the sentence of murder, and unless he appeals to the supreme court interposes.

Mr. Honnor's views on this matter are shared by the diplomatic representatives of other Latin-American countries. It is pointed out as a hopeful sign that the German government already has a commission considering the same question, and the secretary of the imperial treasury presides.

Among the questions presented to that commission were those of keeping stable the price of silver and the best basis for an agreement of nations on the subject.

THE WHITE CITY.

Beautiful Agricultural Building Destroyed by Fire.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Fire was discovered in the dome of the agricultural building at the World's fair grounds Saturday morning, and quickly spread to all parts of the roof. A special alarm called engines from Hyde Park and Woodlawn. The marshal said he thought that the fire would be confined to the agricultural building.

Another alarm called other engines and a determined fight against the fire was made. The fire was finally extinguished. The flames gained headway in the roof and spread rapidly toward the dome in the center. Once having a start in the lofty arch its destruction was a master of the fire.

The firemen were distributed, however, and while several companies were working vigorously in an attempt to stay the fire in the agricultural building others were detailed to adjoining structures and volumes of water were applied toward the burning building. The firemen had accomplished all that was possible and the blaze was practically extinguished. The destruction of the dome left the already partially ruined building even more unsafe and it became an unbalance to the ornate structure surmounted by the statue of Diana, which formed a feature of the Court of Honor. But one theory was advanced that the carriers caused the loss of all the ammunition taken ashore for the use of the landing parties, and that in addition the carriers caused the loss of all the water supply which had been built up.

Continuing. Adm. Helford reported that the sailors, upon reaching shore, had captured two villages, which were defended by stockades.

The sailors occupied these two villages, placing the machine guns at points of vantage and thus making themselves practically secure from attack.

But the loss of the water supply and spare ammunition made Capt. (name) unable to return to the shore with the remainder of his command. The sailors, however, continued their movement eastward, until the next morning, and the column was on its way back when the sailors were suddenly attacked on all sides. The fire, which was directed upon the sailors, was so severe and the slaves were so numerous that the sailors had to retreat hastily, while carrying their wounded and dead along with them, so far as possible.

Lieut. Wm. H. Arnold, of the navy, and Lieutenant C. Francis, of Marines, were the first to fall in the battle.

Admiral Helford, in his dispatch, said that the command of Capt. Edward H. Gamble and that the carriers, by their daring, earned the loss of all the spar ammunition taken ashore for the use of the landing parties, and that in addition the carriers caused the loss of all the water supply which had been built up.

Admiral Helford reported that the sailors, upon reaching shore, had captured two villages, which were defended by stockades.

SPRINGDALE
Mrs. Araminta Cooper returned Thursday from a visit to Washington, D. C.

C. D. Chapman left for Campbell county Tuesday. He goes to take charge of the farm of his aunt, the widow of the late Dr. J. P. Chapman.

The shooting bee passed off pleasantly Friday night. The good spelling by the youngsters shows the improvement made by those who take an interest in public schools.

MORANBURG.
The society event of the season was the party given at the hospitable home of William Wells on Rose Hill last Saturday evening. In the honor of his accomplished daughter, Miss Annie, and if you wish to know what kind of a time they had all you have to do is to ask some of the girls. The party began at the delightful evening to all, only it passed away too quick. Dancing was indulged in until the wee hours of the early morning. The band, orchestra, and the music for the evening. Among those present were Misses Mollie Laytham of Denville, Minnie Wells, Retta Lloyd and Kate Maynes of Benton, Coraine, Anna Mae and Dorothy, Sally Hall, and Lizzie Hughes. Mary Wells, Kate Maynes, Jenny, Mary Wells, Sylvia, Anna, Edna, and Lizzie Ede. Mr. Charles Duzan and Charles Wells of Orangeburg, Bob Marsh, Lute Kilgore, Sam Lewis, John Laytham, Roy Rick, Mrs. Frank Elmer, Bob Darrow, Noble Hughes, John Keeler and Will Perrine.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a trip, please drop us a note to let us know.

Dr. J. T. Strode of Lexington is in the city.

W. L. Moran of Moransburg left Saturday for Kansas.

Letter carrier William H. Davis went to Augusta Saturday to visit friends.

Misses Fannie and Anna Fraze left Saturday afternoon to spend a few days with relatives at Germantown.

Misses Fannie and Mary Carrick and Mrs. Hawkins of Central Kentucky left Saturday afternoon after a most pleasant visit to the Misses Frazee of Market street.

An interesting week.

The meeting at the M. E. Church, South, is increasing in interest.

Her. H. G. Henderson preached yesterday morning upon the subject of "Household Jewels." His appeal to parents for the early and careful religious training of children was very touching and inspiring. There were two accessions to the church at this service.

The evening subject was, "The Divine Call to a Higher Life." He showed that God called man by conscience, by the power of memory, by His providences, and by the Holy Spirit. These calls rejected, God holds in decision the fears of the sinner when his calamity overtakes him. Upon this point the appeal to the unconverted to avail themselves of the opportunity of God's mercy was both eloquent and powerful.

There will be services today at 8 and 6:30 p.m. Professor Fogg is expected to take charge of the music at the afternoon service.

There is but little room for wonder that all the railroads are cutting down expenses when it is known that the gross earnings of thirty-three roads for the first week of February were $6,600,000, against $6,148,464 for the corresponding week of last year, a decrease of $535,576.

WINCHESTER bids fair to have a number of new drugstores. The City Council proposes to lay a saloon license at $300 and drugstores at $100.

DURING the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1892, and ending June 30th, 1893, Mason received from the State School Fund $17,054.03.
